3.5	Employment and Use of Persons Using Funds Other Than From State and Local Sources	1 of 1
NUMBER	TITLE	PAGE

- (1) All persons employed by Roanoke-Chowan Community College through the use of funds from other state and local sources, or who are assigned to the College and paid through other sources, are temporary employees. These individuals are hired for a fixed term for a specific purpose, and nothing written in the contract or by oral agreement is to state or imply that the employment will be continued beyond that term.
- (2) Persons employed with funds from sources other than state and local cannot carry over any vacation time earned beyond the term of the contract.
