NEW AND RETURNING STUDENTS (CURRICULUM AND CONTINUING EDUCATION)

*Free tuition and college fees for NC residents for Fall 2021 and Spring 2022 only. This is a "last option" financial assistance program that provides tuition after all other federal and state funds have been applied. The college will utilize various funding sources: The North Carolina Longleaf Commitment, the American Rescue Plan, Pell Grants (Title IV funds), NC Works, State Employees Credit Union scholarships, Golden LEAF scholarships, GEER, and the R-CCC Foundation.) Students must enroll in 6+ hours of college credit classes or certification classes offered through the Division of Continuing Education that are 96+ hour programs leading to a state or industry recognized certification.

APPLY NOW at www.ROANOKECHOWAN.EDU

Click the "Apply Now" button to begin the application process. Your EFC and financial aid eligibility will be determined after you complete the FAFSA. There is no separate application to apply for the Longleaf Commitment Grant. Please contact the Office of Financial Aid for other scholarship applications and the Division of Continuing Education for certification classes.

*Funding contingent upon student eligibility and available funding.
